

Obstetrical / Pregnancy Ultrasound Preparation

Obstetrical ultrasound uses the full bladder as a “window” to see into the pelvis.

- You must finish 4 glasses of water (32 ounces or 1 litre) at least one hour prior to your appointment
- Your bladder must be full. Do not empty your bladder prior to the examination